

New AIG Employee Benefits Products

Enhanced employee benefits product portfolio for you to offer your small to broad middle market clients

This new product line offers a flexible and simplified approach to employee benefits. A broader spectrum of plan options makes it easier for you to meet specific employer and employee needs.

Employer-funded and employee-paid products include:

- Term Life
- Accidental Death & Dismemberment
- Long-term and Short-term Disability
- Dental
- Vision

Here's why you and your clients will like these major program upgrades:

- Enhanced products with more benefits — to help attract and retain good employees
- Greater plan flexibility to let you fit an employer's specific needs
- More options help your clients save money or upgrade their plans
- More streamlined processes ease the sales flow
- Now underwritten by strong AIG underwriting companies:
 - AIG Life Insurance Company
 - American International Life Assurance Company of New York

Good news!

This new AIG product portfolio is already approved in numerous states

AIG products have been approved in a number of states, while many of the remaining states have approved one or more of the new AIG products. That means you'll need to sell AIG product alongside existing United States Life (USL) product in states where full approvals are still pending.

For the most current list of product availability by state, contact us or visit Marketing Library/New AIG Employee Benefits Products on the private site of www.agac.com.

To ensure a smooth implementation...

Please be very diligent about using the correct marketing forms and collateral for the appropriate underwriting company(ies). For your convenience, an interactive map has been created that automatically identifies what to market and where — right at your fingertips. Check it out on the private site of www.agac.com. And while you're there, click directly to SMARTworks[®] to order new marketing materials specific to the new AIG underwriting companies.
